5. In the event a party challenges a Responding Party’s confidential designation, counsel shall make a good faith effort to resolve the dispute. In the absence of a resolution, the challenging party may thereafter seek resolution by the Court.

6. Nothing in this Protective Order constitutes an admission by any party that any information produced in this matter is relevant or admissible. Each Party specifically reserves the right to object to the use or admissibility of all Confidential Information disclosed, in accordance with applicable law.

7. This Protective Order does not provide for the automatic sealing of such documents.

8. At the conclusion of this litigation, the Confidential Information and any copies thereof shall be promptly (and in no event later than thirty (30) days after entry of a final judgment no longer subject to further appeal) returned to the producing party or certified as destroyed.
